PREFACE.

THE Publishers of the Glasgow Post-Office Directory beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of sixty-six years. It has ever been their desire that the information it contained should keep pace with the progress and general requirements of the City of Glasgow, and every effort has been made to render it as accurate and complete as possible. The Publishers, however, do not hold themselves responsible for any error or omission.

At the beginning of the book will be found a Map of the Environs of Glasgow, the Almanac, Tide Tables, Phases of the Moon, &c. The City Chamberlain and Mr. Henry, the City Assessor, have kindly supplied Statistics of the Population of the City and Suburbs (see page 32), as estimated for the midsummer of 1894; the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1893–94, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament; also the Voters on Electoral Roll for School Board, and the Rental of Glasgow for 1894; and at page 86 of Appendix the names of the conveners and secretaries of the several municipal wards are given. At pages 75 to 100 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the capital and small letters prefixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, and the number at the end its registration district. The large Map, from actual survey by J. Bartholomew, Esq., Edinburgh, has been generally improved upon. The Map is placed at the end of the volume, so that it may lie open without interfering with the turning over of the pages.

In the Street Directory the number affixed to the name of each Street indicates the Municipal Ward in which it is placed for Electoral purposes. In order to make the work as largely available as possible the various Suburban Districts around the City are given, as formerly, revised and corrected to date. The suburban districts nearest the city are incorporated with the General Directory.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding Postal and Telegraph arrangements, together with Local and General Intelligence; and the Publishers beg to thank the gentlemen connected with the various Institutions for their kindness in supplying much useful information.

The printing has been done, as usual, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

All communications on Directory business will have prompt attention on being addressed to the Editor.

A NEW DEPARTURE.—This Branch of Insurance Business is quite new, and many Agents are building up large and profitable Agency Connections by judiciously bringing the advantages of Burglary Insurance before Householders and the Owners of Valuable Property at opportune times.

No account is here taken of the value of paper notes having a forced currency, and only convertible from the nominal value to gold at a greater or less discount.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, and except where otherwise mentioned, the sections referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. The duties relating to Patent Medicine, Inventory, Stamp Account, Estate, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under separate Acts, are inserted; also the exemptions which remain in force under other Acts. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange, or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

(a.) Whether it is chargeable with any duty:

(b.) With what amount of duty it is chargeable.

(2.) Commissioners to be furnished with an abstract of instrument, and such evidence as they deem necessary to show whether facts and circumstances affecting liability to duty are fully and truly set forth.

(3.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is not chargeable with any duty, such instrument may be stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.

(4.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is chargeable with duty, they shall assess the duty with which it is in their opinion chargeable, and if or when instrument is duly stamped in accordance with assessment of the Commissioners, it may be also stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.

(5.) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with any duty, or is duly stamped, shall be admissible in evidence, and available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.

(6.) Provided as follows:—

(a.) Instrument to be stamped according to opinion.—An instrument upon which the duty has been assessed by the Commissioners shall not, if it is unstamped or insufficiently stamped, be stamped otherwise than in accordance with the assessment.

(b.) Securities without limit not to be adjudicated.—Nothing in this section contained extends to any instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty, and made as a security for money or stock without limit, or shall authorize the stamping after the execution thereof of any instrument which by law cannot be stamped after execution.

(c.) A statutory declaration made for the purpose of this section shall not be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and every person by whom any such declaration is made shall, on payment of the duty chargeable upon the instrument to which it relates, be relieved from any fine or disability to which he may be liable, by reason of the omission to state truly in the instrument any fact or circumstance as aforesaid.

(5.) If the assessment of the commissioners is confirmed, the court may make an order for payment to the Commissioners of the costs incurred by them in relation to the appeal.

INVENTORY DUTY (See Note, p. 63).

Property liable to the Duty.—Generally—All personal property (heritable securities are personal property, including bonds of annual rent and bonds of annuity, and real burdens on land, but not securities by absolute disposition qualified by back bond) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and bonds excluding executors, and also money secured by ex facie absolute disposition.—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, &c.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, &c.; 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8; 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, §§ 3 and 117; 37 and 38 Vict. c. 94, § 30; and 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80). Proceeds of a life policy effected by a person dying domiciled elsewhere than in the United Kingdom not liable.—52 and 53 Vict. c. 42, § 19.

Personal property—Absolute power of disposal.—Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April, 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty.—(23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death.—(25 Vict. c. 22, § 39).

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country. See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson and Welsby, 171

Companies under the Companies Acts whose objects comprise business in a colony may have a branch register of members resident in said colony. The share of a deceased member registered in such colonial register shall be part of the estate of such deceased member for inventory duty, in like manner as if the registration had been in the registered office of the company, unless he shall have died elsewhere than in the United Kingdom.—(46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (b), and 52 and 53 Vict. c. 42, § 18).

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executry. In addition, from and after 1st August, 1870, the Act 33 & 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house-rents would not therefore be to the half year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.

When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made movable by the Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the heritable securities excluding executors and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

In exhibiting inventories after 1st June, 1881, the amount of debts due and owing by the deceased to persons in the United Kingdom, and funeral expenses, may be deducted from the value of the estate, for the purpose of paying the inventory duty. The account of such to be delivered with or annexed to the affidavit to the inventory.

The debts not to include voluntary debts payable on death or payable under instruments not bona fide delivered three months before death. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue within three years may call for evidence of the contents of or particulars verified by the affidavit or inventory.

Where the gross estate of a deceased person dying after 1st June, 1881, does not exceed £300, and the estate exceeds £100, if an inventory shall be given up in accordance with the special provisions of the Act, the duty to which the inventory is liable is 30s.—(44 Vict. c. 12, § 34.)

Forms of the inventory and relative affidavit may be obtained at the Inland Revenue Office (Legacy and Succession Duty Department).

NOTE.

While these pages were passing through the press the Budget proposals of 1894 were submitted to Parliament. These made important alterations in the stamp duties on property passing by death, as well as on the income tax, but not having yet received the sanction of parliament we can only give a summary of the proposals as affecting those duties.

1. It is proposed that the existing Inventory or Probate and Account duties should cease, as well as the additional Succession and Estate duties, under the Acts of 1888–89, and the Succession duty on lineals, and be replaced by a new Estate duty to be levied on the capital value of the property, whether real or personal, passing by death after 31st May, 1894, according to the following scale of rates:—

Where the principal value exceeds £100 and does not exceed £500—at the rate for every full sum of £100, and for any fractional part of £100 over any multiple of £100, of £1 per cent.
Do. £500 to £1000, . . £2 per cent.
Do. £1000 to £10,000, . £3 per cent.
Do. £10,000 to £25,000, . £4 per cent.
Do. £25,000 to £50,000, . £4 10s. per cent.
Do. £50,000 to £75,000, . £5 per cent.
Do. £75,000 to £100,000, . £5 10s. per cent.
Do. £100,000 to £150,000, . £6 per cent.
Do. £150,000 to £250,000, . £6 10s. per cent.
Do. £250,000 to £500,000, . £7 per cent.
Do. £500,000 to £1,000,000, £7 10s. per cent.
Do. £1,000,000 and over, . £8 per cent

Settled property having paid Estate duty will be exempt from further payment of that duty during the continuance of the settlement, but in consideration of that exemption will pay an additional Estate duty of one per cent. But that additional duty is not to be paid where the only life interest is that of the deceased's wife or husband. The Estate duty on real property will be paid by eight yearly instalments, with interest at three per cent. from the date of the delivery of the account.

Legacy and Succession Duty.

The rates of Legacy Duty remain unchanged.

Succession Duty as respects both the rate of duty and the valuation of property (i.e., the charging of it on capital value) will be the same as Legacy Duty.

Estates under £1000 having paid Estate Duty will be free from any charge for Legacy or Succession Duty.

Income Tax.

It is proposed that the rate of Income Tax shall be 8d. per £1, incomes under £160 being exempt, those under £400 having an abatement of £160, and those between £400 and £500 an abatement of £100 on the amount chargeable with duty.

LEGACY DUTY (See Note).

Legacies, Annuities, Residues, &c.

	Duty per cent.
To children or their descendants, or lineal ancestors, - - - - -	£1 0

By 44 Vict. c. 12, § 41, this duty not payable where the estate is included in an Inventory or Account under § 38, on which inventory duty paid.

Brother or sister, or their descendants, -	£3 0
Uncle or aunt, or their descendants, -	5 0
Grand uncle or aunt, or their descendants,	6 0
All other relations or strangers, - -	10 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of; and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (ib. § 11).

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43).

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Where a full and true account containing all material facts has been rendered, liability for duty to cease after six years from settlement of account (52 Vict. c. 7, § 14).

Estates not exceeding £300 and deceased dying on or after 1st June, 1881. Payment of fixed duty of 30s. on inventory to be in full of claim to legacy duty on estate to which such inventory relates (44 Vict. c. 12, § 36).

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY (See Note, p. 63).

(16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, 51 Vict. c. 8, §§ 21 and 22, and 52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 10–12, 14, and 15.

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personalty (§ 1).

RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY.

1. Successions to property included in a Stamp Account (44 Vict. c. 12, § 38) and Leaseholds; also any succession by a death before 1st July, 1888, same rates as under the Legacy Duty Acts, supra, 51 Vict. c. 8, § 21.

2. In other cases, lineal issue or lineal ancestor of the predecessor, £1 10s. per cent.

Note.—No succession duty payable by lineal issue, &c., where the estate included in inventory or Stamp Account, and duty paid, under 44 Vict. c. 12, see § 41.

Brothers and sisters of the predecessor and their descendants, £4 10s. per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants, £6 10s. per cent.

Brothers and sisters of a grandfather or grandmother of predecessor and their descendants, £7 10s. per cent.

Any other person, £11 10s. per cent. See 51 Vict. c. 8, § 21 (1).

The husband or wife of the predecessor is not chargeable with duty (§ 18), and if the successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship (§ 11).

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100 (§ 18). 2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition (ib.)

The duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (§ 41).

Duty on successions in arrear, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Liability of purchasers and mortgagees for duty limited to certain specified periods. Where full and true account containing all material facts rendered, liability in certain cases, &c., to cease in six years from settlement of account. Limitation of liability for duty where attested copy of document lodged (52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 12, 13, 14, and 15.)

Note.—Forms of the accounts for Legacy and Succession Duties may be obtained at the Legacy Duty Office, Edinburgh, and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

1. On every inhabited dwelling-house of the annual value of £20 or upwards, occupied as a farm-house by a tenant or farm servant, or any shop or warehouse, being part of a dwelling-house, where goods are exposed for sale and sold in the front and basement storey, or any house licensed for the sale of liquors by retail, or occupied as a hotel, although not licensed for the sale of liquors. The following rates of duty are chargeable:—

£20 and not exceeding £40	—2d. per £.

Where any dwelling-house chargeable to the second class of duties is occupied by a person for the main purpose of letting furnished lodgings as a means of livelihood, the occupier may, before the 1st of July, register his name in the list of lodging-house keepers kept by the clerk to the Commissioners, and after such registration, and before the 1st October, make application to have the rate of charge reduced from 9d. to 6d., or 6d. to 4d., or 3d. to 2d.

Exemptions, &c.—A house or tenement is exempt when occupied solely for the purpose of trade or business, or of any profession or calling by which occupier seeks a livelihood or profit, and although a menial or domestic servant, or other person of a similar grade or description, not otherwise employed by the occupier, may dwell therein for the protection thereof. Where house let in different tenements, relief to be granted in respect of tenement occupied as above, or unoccupied, on notice being given to Surveyor of Taxes. A house is also exempt, if used for the sole purpose of providing separate dwellings, where the annual value of each dwelling does not amount to £20, provided the district medical officer under the Public Health Act, or another medical practitioner appointed by the Local Authority, certifies that the house affords suitable accommodation for each of the families or persons inhabiting it, and satisfies sanitary requirements. Where the annual value of each dwelling amounts to £20 but does not exceed £40, assessment will be confined to annual value exclusive of dwellings of annual value below £20 each, and rate will be reduced to 3d.

[The usual non-participating Rates of other Offices differ little from these Premiums.]

* A person of 30 may secure £1000 at death, by a yearly payment, during life, of £20 : 15s.

This Premium would generally elsewhere secure £800 only, instead of £1000.

OR, he may secure £1000 by 21 yearly payments of £27 : 13 : 4—being thus free of payment after age 50.

† At age 40, the Premium ceasing at age 60 is, for £1000, £33 : 14 : 2,—about the same as most Offices require during the whole term of life. Before the Premiums have ceased, the Policy will have shared in at least one division of profits. To Professional Men and others, whose income is dependent on continuance of health, the limited payment system is specially recommended.
